

Missing man in Mong Kok located

A man who went missing in Mong Kok has been located.

Tse Kin-sun, aged 82, went missing after he was last seen on Sai Yee Street on November 20 night. Police subsequently received the report.

The man turned up to Police to cancel the missing person report yesterday (November 22) night. He sustained no injuries and no suspicious circumstances were detected.