

Missing man in Tin Sum located

A man who went missing in Tin Sum has been located.

Chung Chiu-ming, aged 86, went missing after he left a hospital on Ngan Shing Street yesterday (February 13) afternoon. Staff of the hospital made a report to Police on the same day. The man tested preliminarily positive for COVID-19.

The man was located on Yi Shing Square in small hours today (February 14). He sustained no injuries and no suspicious circumstances were detected.