Missing man in Western Division located

A man who went missing in Western Division has been located.

Wong Kwong-yin, aged 63, went missing after he left an elderly home on Queen's Road West on January 3 night. Staff of the elderly home made a report to Police on the same day.

The man was located on Lun Fat Street in Wan Chai last night (January 4). He sustained no injuries and was sent to Ruttonjee Hospital for examination. No suspicious circumstances were detected.