

Missing man located

A man who went missing has been located.

Yip Shing, aged 71, entered Hong Kong through Lo Wu Control Point in the afternoon of February 20 and missing since then. His family made a report to the Police on February 22.

The man turned up to Police to cancel the missing person report this afternoon (February 28). He sustained no injuries and no suspicious circumstances were detected.