

Missing woman in Western District located

A woman who went missing in Western District has been located.

Law Bik-wah, aged 81, went missing after she left an elderly home on Des Voeux Road West on November 28 afternoon. Staff of the elderly home made a report to Police on the same day.

Police located the woman in a hospital on Queen's Road East in Wan Chai this afternoon (December 2). No suspicious circumstances were detected.