

MOD signs advisors to develop surplus land for community use

Local communities will benefit from real estate and environmental & technical advice in developing surplus Defence sites for residential use.