

Modernised laws to secure UK as world leader in dispute resolution

The UK's status as a multi-billion-pound global leader in arbitration services will be secured by new legislation introduced to Parliament on 21 November 2023.