

Monsoon flooding: UK announces £30,000 in humanitarian assistance to affected communities in Bangladesh

The UK is providing £30,000 (BDT 4.5 crores) of vital humanitarian assistance to support flood-affected communities in Sylhet, where over three million people have been impacted and 260,000 are displaced.