

More lawyers sought to stop domestic abusers interrogating victims

More legal professionals are being encouraged to help prevent domestic abusers cross-examining their victims in court with a new expenses policy launched today ( 7 December 2023).