

More than £14 million in joint government and industry funding to boost innovation and working conditions in freight

Funding will provide more parking for HGVs, better conditions for lorry drivers and support UK businesses to take advantage of the latest technology.