

More than 2,000 government roles relocated out of Westminster in the final quarter of 2023

The Places for Growth programme has successfully relocated 18,283 civil service roles from London to locations across the United Kingdom, putting the government further ahead of schedule against its commitment to relocate 22...