

More than 300 swimming pools to benefit from £60 million to support long-term future

325 swimming pools and leisure centres across England will receive a share of £60.5 million to ensure their long term financial sustainability, by improving their energy efficiency in order to keep running costs down.