

More than 300,000 homes better protected from flooding since 2015

The Environment Agency and partners have completed more than 700 projects to better protect more than 300,000 homes since 2015