

More than 7,000 shrubs planted to combat climate change in Essex

Over 2,000 metres of hedgerow has been planted in Seawick and Leewick near Clacton to help store carbon.