

More than half of over 18s boosted against COVID-19

More than 50% of the adult UK population are now boosted after the programme was accelerated this week