

Movie Tram to launch additional tours to address overwhelming response (with photo)

The Movie Tram activity under the Hong Kong Pop Culture Festival 2023, organised by the Leisure and Cultural Services Department (LCSD), received overwhelming response since its launch. To allow more local public and tourists to experience this unique cultural journey, 26 additional tours will be held in May and June. Tickets for the additional tours for May and June priced at $100 per person will be available at URBIX starting tomorrow (May 12) and on May 19 respectively.

The additional tours of the Movie Tram will be held on the afternoons of weekends from May 20 to June 11. There are two routes, eastbound or westbound, covering the same attractions. Led by docents, participants will take a stroll on the streets in Central and Western District to explore classic film locations in Hong Kong and listen to film specialists' sharing of behind-the-scene stories and inspirations for cinematic creativity on board a thematic tram. With 15 participants per tour, the tour, conducted in Cantonese, will run for approximately two hours.

Spots to be visited during the tour include Kau U Fong, Mee Lun Street, PMQ, Tank Lane and Western Market, allowing participants to explore the shooting locations of movies "Rouge", "Arrest the Restless", "In the Mood for Love", "Infernal Affairs", "Three: Going Home" and "The Way We Dance". Guests joining the tram ride include directors and producers Stanley Kwan and Ann Hui, producer and screenwriter Mani Man, and directors and screenwriters Jacky Ng and Jun Li.

The Movie Tram, presented by the LCSD, is one of the programmes under the Hong Kong Pop Culture Festival 2023. Walk In Hong Kong is the collaborative organisation of this programme.
