

Museums to benefit from £24 million investment to fund major infrastructure projects

More than £86 million overall to be invested to develop world-class culture