

Myriad of litter collected from fish pass

The extent of littering was evident when an Environment Agency officer undertook some essential clearance of a fish pass this week.