

NATO North Atlantic Council support for Afghanistan

News story

The UK will continue to work closely with the US and our NATO Allies and partners to support a secure and stable Afghanistan.

Foreign Secretary Dominic Raab said:

“The UK stands with NATO and the people of Afghanistan to support a more stable, peaceful future for the country, and the wider region. We will support an orderly departure of our forces, whilst building up Afghanistan’s capacity for self-governance, and continuing counter-terrorism support – to protect the gains made over the last 20 years.”
