

Natural Flood Management work underway in Northumberland village

Work to install natural features to better protect residents in Acomb, Northumberland from flooding is underway.