

New £26 million fund to help local authorities speed up data transfers

HM Treasury is providing additional financial support for councils migrating their local land charges service to HM Land Registry.