

New action to tackle ethnic and other biases in medical devices

Government outlines action to make UK a world leader in tackling ethnic and other biases in medical devices.