

New benefit counter-fraud plan set to save taxpayer £2 billion

A £600 million plan to fight fraud in the welfare system will introduce a range of new powers and boost the counter-fraud frontline, saving the taxpayer £2 billion over three years.