

New data shows small businesses received £21.3 billion in COVID-19 local authority business support grants

COVID-19 grants supported businesses in many sectors of the economy, including accommodation and food services, wholesale and retail, and arts, entertainment and recreation.