

New data suggests nearly half of charities experience issues when banking

Latest survey from the Charity Commission reveals widespread scale and impact of ongoing banking issues facing the sector.