

New digital forensics unit boosts crackdown on crime in jails

A new digital forensics unit and expanded digital investigations team will crack down on criminal activity involving devices smuggled into jails.