

New flood risk management scheme for Worcester completed

The new scheme for Toronto Close in Worcester has been welcomed by residents who were evacuated from their homes during devastating floods.