

New funding for local authorities to prepare for charging reform

New funding will be given to local authorities and government trailblazers to prepare for the charging reform