

New gear to save lives

The Government is readying for the wet season with new equipment and exercises to optimise its emergency response.

News.gov.hk spoke to the Civil Aid Service (Department) to learn about the new gear, such as high-powered chainsaws and specialised life jackets.

The story appears on news.gov.hk today (June 23) in both text and video format.