

New homes near Clayhill Road Burghfield

I attended the consultation and presentation of plans for a development of around 100 new homes in Burghfield Common.

I encouraged them to increase the proportion of affordable homes for sale with the affordable section of the plans, and favoured styles and finishes for the houses that blend with local styles.