

New innovation challenge launched to tackle bias in AI systems

UK companies can apply for up to £400,000 in government investment to fund innovative new solutions which tackle bias and discrimination in AI systems.