

New legislation set to ban live animal exports

Export of livestock for slaughter and fattening will be banned under new legislation.