

New measures to further ease fuel supply chain pressures

The UK government has today announced further measures to help further ease supply chain pressures and spikes in localised demand for fuel.