

New measures to generate growth and greater financial sustainability in community radio

Advertising and sponsorship limits to be removed for the majority of community stations, allowing them to generate more money to reinvest in their operations