

New national organ donation and transplantation plan for Greece led by Trust consultant

A landmark report for a new national organ donation and transplantation plan in Greece has been accepted.