

New Occupational Health Taskforce to tackle in-work sickness and drive down inactivity

The UK Government recently launched its Occupational Health Innovation Fund which has provided £1m funding to 10 projects to develop innovative new models of OH, using technology to improve the capacity and capability of OH ...