

New regulations come into force to improve accessibility on local buses and coaches

Local bus and coach services will have to provide real-time onboard route and stop information.