

New Secure School to protect public and cut crime

Serious young offenders will be turned away from gangs and knife crime through rigorous education and training at the country's first Secure School.