

New tractor simulator aims to educate the next generation

A new SRUC tractor simulator took Aberdonians by storm when it made its first appearance at the popular TechFest science and technology family festival.