

New UK money to combat human trafficking

UK announces £4m to address irregular migration at source and support vulnerable communities