

New vaccine advice for adults living with adults who are immunosuppressed

JCVI recommends that adults living with adults who are immunosuppressed should be prioritised for the COVID-19 vaccine.