

New Victims Minister hears from frontline staff at coalface of supporting survivors of crime during first visit

Frontline staff laid bare the challenges they face in helping victims navigate the criminal justice system during a visit from the new Minister for Victims, Alex Davies-Jones.