

New video tech to increase remote hearings in civil and family courts

A new video platform enabling more remote cases to be heard safely and securely is being rolled out to the civil and family courts, Ministers have confirmed.