

New vision to create competitive carbon capture market follows unprecedented £20 billion investment

Government sets out plans for a new competitive UK carbon capture, usage and storage market by 2035 – supporting net zero aims and bringing new jobs and growth