

New wine reforms to boost investment and ease burdens on industry

Following a public consultation, the government has set out reforms for the wine sector which will begin in 2024.