

News story: £1 billion of funding to upgrade NHS services in England

A total of 75 projects will receive money to upgrade facilities and treat more patients, including mental health and new integrated care services in the community.