

News story: Almost half a million new keys exchanged with Help to Buy

Almost half a million completions have taken place since 2013 using one or more of the government's Help to Buy schemes, new figures out today (26 February 2019) show.