

News story: Animal medicines prosecution: Mr Murray McGregor

From:

First published:

8 February 2017

Details of the prosecution of Mr Murray McGregor. Published in February 2017.

On 18th January 2017 at Perth Sheriff Court, Mr Murray McGregor plead guilty to importing an unauthorised veterinary medicinal product, possession of an unauthorised veterinary medicinal product and that he did administer an unauthorised veterinary medicine under the Veterinary Medicines Regulations 2008 and 2009.

These charges related to the product Terramycin 100MR which was administered to Mr McGregor's bee hives.

On 1st February 2017 at Perth Sheriff Court, Mr Murray McGregor was fined £2500, reduced by a third from £3750 for an early plea.