

News story: Avian Influenza – UK declared free from bird flu but Chief Vet urges ongoing vigilance

The UK has been declared officially free from Avian Influenza (bird flu) following a major outbreak of the disease last winter