

News story: Bionic arm start up secures £4.6 million to go global

More children and young people set to benefit from 3D printed 'hero' arm, which has received support through Innovate UK's SBRI programme.